6. Venue is laid within the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York in that Defendant City of New York is located within the boundaries of the Southern District of New York.

8. The City of New York is a municipal corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York.
9. New York Police Commissioner Raymond Kelly ("Kelly") was at all times here relevant the Commissioner of the New York City Police Department, and, as such, was a policy maker with respect to training, supervision, and discipline of NYPD officers, including the other individual defendants. Kelly is sued in his individual and official capacities.
10. Commanding Officer Deputy Inspector John Bambury ("Bambury") was at all times here relevant the commanding officer of the 83rd Precinct, and, as such, was a policy maker with respect to training, supervision, and discipline of NYPD officers within the precinct, including the other individual defendants. Bambury is sued in his individual and official capacities.
11. All others individual defendants ("the officers") are employees of the NYPD, and are sued in their individual capacities.
12. At all times here mentioned defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

NOTICE OF CLAIM

13. Within 90 days of the events giving rise to this claim, plaintiff filed written notice of claim with the New York City Office of the Comptroller. Over 30 days have elapsed since the filing of that notice, and this matter has not been settled or otherwise disposed of.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

14. On November 7, 2006, officers from the 83rd Precinct subjected plaintiff to a line-up.
15. The complaining witness failed to single out plaintiff during the line-up.
16. Detective Hernandez informed plaintiff's attorney that plaintiff would be sent to Central Booking despite the complaining witness's failure to identify him.
17. Plaintiff was held in the precinct for several hours after the witness failed to identify him in a line-up.
18. Plaintiff was transported to Central Booking.
19. Plaintiff was held for several hours at Central Booking.
20. The District Attorney's office declined to prosecute plaintiff.
21. At all times during the events described above, the defendant police officers were engaged in a joint venture and formed an agreement to violate plaintiff's rights. The individual officers assisted each other in performing the various actions described and lent their physical presence and support and the authority of their office to each other during said events. They failed to intervene in the obviously illegal actions of their fellow officers against plaintiff.
22. During all of the events above described, defendants acted maliciously and with intent to injure plaintiff.
23. As a direct and proximate result of the acts of defendants, plaintiff suffered the following injuries and damages:

- a. Violation of his rights pursuant to the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution to be free from an unreasonable search and seizure of his person;
- b. Violation of his right to Due Process of Law under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution;
- c. Violation of his New York State Constitutional rights under Article 1, Section 12 to be free from an unreasonable search and seizure;
- d. Violation of his New York State Constitutional right under Article 1, Section 6 to Due Process of Law;

- f. Loss of liberty, and;
- g. Attorney's fees.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
(42 USC § 1983)

- 24. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference.
- 25. Defendants acted under color of law and conspired to deprive plaintiff of his civil, constitutional and statutory rights to be free from unreasonable search and seizure and to due process of law pursuant to the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and are liable to plaintiff under 42 U.S.C. §§1983 and §§ 6 and 12 of the New York State Constitution.
- 26. Plaintiff has been damaged as a result of defendants' wrongful acts.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
(MUNICIPAL AND SUPERVISORY LIABILITY)

27. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference.
28. The City, Kelly, and Bambury are liable for the damages suffered by plaintiff as a result of the conduct of their employees, agents, and servants.
29. The City, Kelly, and Bambury knew or should have known of their employees', agents', or servants' propensity to engage in the illegal and wrongful acts detailed above.

30. The aforesaid event was not an isolated incident. The City, Kelly, and Bambury have been aware for some time (from lawsuits, notices of claim and complaints filed with the Civilian Complaint Review Board) that many of their police officers are insufficiently trained on what is required to prosecute an individual. The City, Kelly, and Bambury are further aware, from the same sources, that NYPD officers routinely ignore the necessary predicates for probable cause, and that a "wall of silence" exists by which police officers falsely imprison and maliciously prosecute citizens without fear of reprisal. The City, Kelly, and Bambury fail to discipline officers for not reporting fellow officers' misconduct that they have observed, and they fail to discipline officers for making false statements to disciplinary agencies. Further, there is no procedure to notify individual officers or their supervisors of unfavorable judicial review of their conduct. Without this notification, improper search and seizure practices and incredible testimony go uncorrected. Additionally, the City, Kelly, and Bambury have isolated their law department from the discipline of police officers, so that civil suits against police officers for actions taken in their capacity as police officers have no impact on the officers' careers, regardless of the outcome of the civil actions. The City, Kelly, and Bambury are aware that all of the aforementioned has resulted in violations of citizens' constitutional rights. Despite such notice, the City, Kelly and Bambury have failed to take corrective action. This failure and these policies caused the officers in the present case to violate plaintiff's civil rights, without fear of reprisal.

31. The City, Kelly, and Bambury have failed to take the steps to discipline, train, supervise or otherwise correct the improper, illegal conduct of the individual defendants in this and in similar cases involving misconduct.

32. The above described policies and customs demonstrated a deliberate indifference on the part of policymakers of the City, Kelly, and Bambury to the constitutional rights of persons within New York City, and were the cause of the violations of plaintiff's rights here alleged.

33. Defendants the City, Kelly, and Bambury have damaged plaintiff by their failure to properly train, supervise, discipline, review, remove, or correct the illegal and improper acts of their employees, agents or servants in this and in similar cases involving police misconduct.

34. Plaintiff has been damaged as a result of the wrongful, negligent and illegal acts of the City, Kelly, and Bambury.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
(FALSE IMPRISONMENT)

35. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference.

36. Defendants subjected plaintiff to false imprisonment and deprivation of liberty without probable cause.

37. Defendant intended to confine plaintiff.

38. Plaintiff was conscious of his confinement.

39. Plaintiff did not consent to his confinement.

40. Defendants have deprived plaintiff of his civil, constitutional and statutory rights and have conspired to deprive him of such rights and are liable to plaintiff under 42 USC §§1983, New York State common law, and the New York State Constitution.

41. As a result of the false arrest, imprisonment, and deprivation of liberty, plaintiff was damaged.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION (MALICIOUS PROSECUTION)

42. The preceding paragraphs are here incorporated by reference.

43. Defendants, acting with malice, initiated a prosecution against plaintiff and caused him to be prosecuted.

44. Defendants had no probable cause to prosecute plaintiff.

45. The criminal proceedings were terminated in plaintiff's favor.

46. Defendants have deprived plaintiff of his civil, constitutional and statutory rights and have conspired to deprive him of such rights and are liable to plaintiff under 42 USC §1983, New York State common law, and the New York State Constitution.

47. As a result of the malicious prosecution implemented by defendants, plaintiff was damaged.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(CONSTITUTIONAL TORT)

48. All preceding paragraphs are here incorporated by reference.

49. Defendants, acting under color of law, violated plaintiff's rights pursuant to §§6 and 12 of the New York State Constitution.

50. A damages remedy here is necessary to effectuate the purposes of §§6 and 12 of the New York State Constitution, and appropriate to ensure full realization of plaintiff's rights under those sections.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(RESPONDEAT SUPERIOR)

51. The preceding paragraphs are here incorporated by reference.

52. Defendants' intentional tortious acts were undertaken within the scope of their employment by defendant City of New York and in furtherance of the defendant City of New York's interest.

53. As a result of defendants' tortious conduct in the course of their employment and in furtherance of the business of defendant City of New York, plaintiff was damaged.
